Brief Description of the University, Key Facts (4-10 sentences)

Ranked among the top 20 public universities in the nation according to U.S. News & World Report, the University of Connecticut (UConn) enrolls approximately 18,000 undergraduate students at UConn's main campus in Storrs.

Exchange students study at the main campus in Storrs, which offers state-of-the art research, living, and recreational facilities in the heart of New England. Campus life includes a vibrant student union, a host of volunteer opportunities and over 400 social, sport, hobby, travel and religious clubs.

Incoming exchange students are also eligible to apply for work on campus. UConn Storrs is located in the rolling hills of northeastern Connecticut, 3 hours from New York, 1.5 hours from Boston and 1 hour from Providence, Rhode Island. Hartford, the capital of Connecticut, is only 30 minutes from the campus and offers numerous cultural, athletic and social attractions.

Requirement

Comments

Students who are non-native English speakers who attend institutions where the language of instruction is not English are required to submit proof of English language proficiency, see below. This requirement includes institutions where some courses may be taught in English, but the majority are taught in the national language(s). Lund students must thus show a TOEFL/IELTS score meeting the stated requirements, unless they are enrolled in a Bachelor's or Master's program that is taught entirely in English.

TOEFL iBT. Score: 79

Comments

Those students who are nominated for exchange by Lund University need to book at date for a test at once. <http://www.ets.org/toefl> The result needs to be sent along with the application.

IELTS. Score: 6.5

Other Tests or Language Qualifications

"Students who are enrolled in the following programs (<http://www.lunduniversity.lu.se/o.o.i.s?id=24725&func=master>) can be waived of the TOEFL/IELTS requirement without any additional teacher certification. The students who meet this waiver criteria should write in their study abroad application under the TOEFL section that they are enrolled in an international Master's in X, taught entirely in English.
